Obituary

"Loved ones never die: they live forever in our memory."

Loretha Williams Butler was born in Bulloch County to the late Benjamin and Della C. Williams.

She was received for baptism during her early youth at the First African Baptist Church. She loved the church and quietly and unassumingly did what she could to promote the Christian movements of the church.

She received her education in the Bulloch County Elementary Schools; B. S. degree from Savannah State College. She did further studied at South Carolina State, Orangeburg, S. C., and Georgia Southern College, in Statesboro, Georgia. She made a European Tour in 1967.

October 8, 1947, she was joined in matrimony to Mr. Levi A. Butler, Sr. To this union one child was born.

She departed this life February 14, 1971, leaving to mourn her passing, her husband, Levi A. Butler, Sr.; a son, Levi A. Jr.; one brother, Benjamin Williams, Jr.; three sisters, Mrs. Madie E. Scott, Mrs. Elmus Johnson, and Mrs. Betty Parrish; her mother-in-law, Mrs. Roxie B. Butler; three sister-in-laws, Mrs. Novella Butler Moon, Montezuma, Georgia, Mrs. Ollie Butler Moore, Southern University, Baton Rouge, La., and Mrs. Roxie Butler Dunn, A and T College, Greensboro, N. C.; two brother-in-laws, Rev. R. W. Butler, Savannah, Georgia, and Mrs. Vernon S. Butler, Sr., Statesboro, Georgia; and other relatives and friends.

"There remaineth a rest for the people of God

When this life with its labor is done

When the end has been reached of earth's last weary mile,

And the battle long-fought has been won."
